Submission Method	Students Compose in OR Copy & Paste into Eli Review
Instructions	In this peer review exercise, you will draft one paragraph on the films/TV shows and topic you plan to write on for your final. The purpose of the exercise is to (a) help you practice effective written expression, and to (b) help you start thinking about your final paper (due June 7). Your paragraph must include answers to the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Which TWO films/TV shows do you plan to write on for your final and why are you interested in them?</li><li>2. Which element of the class analytic framework do you plan to write about (Gothic aesthetics, transgressions of boundaries, or wider social comment) and why?</li></ol> (Note: you are not locked in to your choices here for the final. Just write about what you're currently most interested in doing.) You should write one paragraph total (200 to 300 words). You should focus on your written expression: carefully proof your work for correct spelling and grammar.
